UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
TO FILE RESPONSIVE PLEADING

NOW INTO COURT, in propria persona, come plaintiffs Carl Bernofsky and Shirley G. Bernofsky, appearing solely for the purpose of respectfully moving this Court for an order granting an extension of the deadline for filing a responsive pleading to defendants' Motion to Dismiss, filed on behalf of The Louisiana Recovery Authority and Louisiana Division of Administration through the Office of Community Development. The deadline is currently set for February 23, 2010. Plaintiffs request a twenty (20) day extension until March 15, 2010 to file their responsive pleading. Defendants do not oppose this motion.¹

¹See defendants' approval of February 17, 2010, attached.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs respectfully request that their motion be granted and that a twenty (20) day extension to the responsive pleading deadline be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

CARL BERNOFSKY

Dear Ms. Culotta,

Kindly let me know if you have any objection to my seeking a 20-day extension of time in which to file responsive pleadings to this case.

Should the Court grant my motion for this extension of time, the new deadline would be March 15, 2010.

Sincerely,

Carl Bernofsky
